

A33 Abbot Point

Abbot Point is a large coal port north of Bowen on Queensland's east coast. On the eastern side of the port there is a long open coast beach which runs almost parallel to the only road in and out of the port. The landmarks selected were chosen to reflect some of the levels seen by the infrastructure at the port, as well as a potential cut-off point along the main road.

A33.1 Marine Offloading Facility

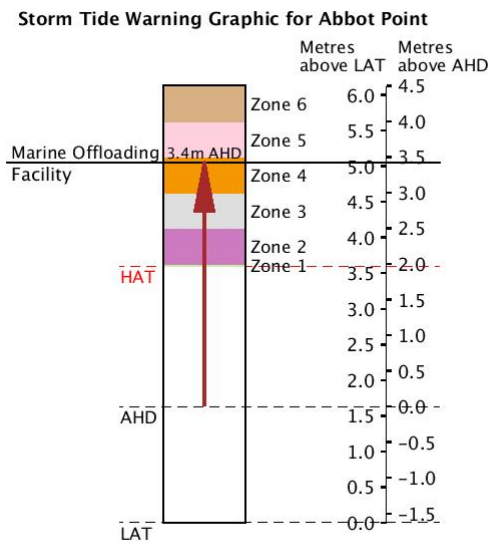

Figure 96. Marine offloading facility: Abbot Point, Qld, 4805

A33.2 Abbot Point Road Bridge

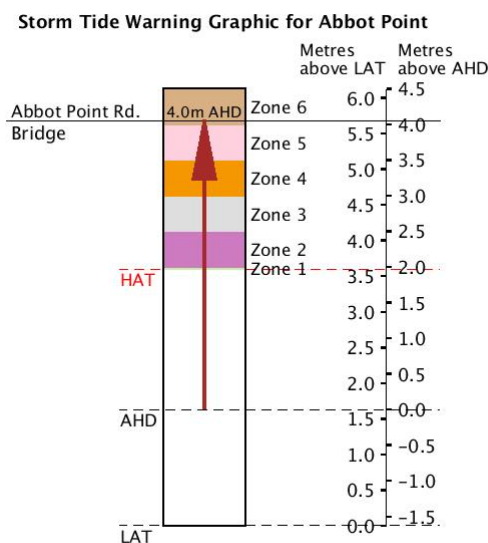

Figure 97. Bridge: Abbot Point Road, Bowen, Qld, 4805